- ii. The complaints fail to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted.
- iii. The complaint has not and/or not likely to suffer injury or damage by the dismissal.
6. If a complaint is not dismissed, then a hearing shall be held. The GRC shall inform, in writing or via e-mail, the complaining party and individuals or groups named in the complaint of the time and place of the hearing. The parties are not considered notified until they have received a copy of the complaint.
7. The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible time, but not within twenty four (24) hours after receipt of the notice described above, unless all parties agree to waive the 24 hour time constraint.
8. At the time notice of hearing is issued, the GRC by majority opinion, may issue a temporary restraining order, if it satisfied that such action is necessary to prevent undue or adverse effects on any individual or entity. Any restraining order, once issued, will remain in effect until final decision of the GRC is announced after the hearing or until rescinded by the GRC.
9. All GRC hearings, proceedings and meetings shall be open to the students, employees and teachers of the College.
10. All parties of the GRC hearing shall present themselves at the hearing and may be accompanied by any other student from which they can receive counsel; and have the option to be represented by that accompanying student.
11. For any hearing a majority of sitting GRC members must be in attendance with the Chair of the GRC presiding. In the absence of the chair, the responsibility to preside shall fall to a GRC member designated by the Chair.
12. The GRC shall determine the modalities of the hearing , but in any event, shall require that both the complaining and responding parties appear physically before the Grievance Cell
