

Annexure II

Best Practice-I

1. Title of the Practice:

Women Empowerment Programme

2. Goal: Barbhag College believes in gender justice and empowerment inside the campus and tries to extend its effort towards gender sensitisation, boosting dignity of women folk as well as empowering them physically, mentally, socially and economically etc.

3. The Context: The College is situated in the rural area of Nalbari district of Assam where women folk are comparatively less empowered and are marginalised. Simultaneously, the number of girl students is more as compared to that of boys in the College and most of the girl students come from the remote areas and belong to poor families. So, to empower girl students and women folk of the neighbouring community, the College has been taking various initiatives in this regard.

4. The Practice: This practice was introduced in the college in the year 2012. A permanent body by the name of Women Cell was formed and it has been performing activities like awareness programme, lecture programme, various competition, health camp, public meetings, workshop etc. This year the following programmes were conducted—(a) workshop and lecture on protection and safety of women on 20-06-2017; (b) health awareness programme at Dokoha High school in celebrating the International Women's Day on 08-03-2018.

5. Evidence of Success: we have observed the following positive impacts of this practice among the students, parents and neighbouring community— (a) Increasing enrolment of girl students; (b) active participation of girl student in the academic and co-curricular activities of College is increasing ; (c) the success rate of girl students in examinations and other activities has increased.

6. Problems encountered and Resources Required: Due to paucity of fund, it sometimes becomes difficult to organise different activities outside the college campus and other skill based empowerment programme for further development of the girl students and the women folk in the neighbourhood.

Best practice-II

1. Title of the Practice:

Best Reader Awards

2. Goal: To motivate the students for inculcating reading habit in themselves, this award was introduced in the College.

3. The Context: This award is being given to the students who regularly visit the central library of our institution and use the library judiciously and have excelled in academic field..

4. The Practice: Two best readers, one from male and another one from female students are selected for the Award. The Award is sponsored by the Library of the College

5. Evidence of Success: This practice has improved the reading habit of the students and the number of students using library resources has been increasing day by day.
